

Vacation homes on Morse Mountain

Three houses are available for rent on Morse Mountain within the Bates-Morse Mountain Conservation Area, adjacent to a mile of stunningly beautiful beach and dunes.

EYRIE:

At the very top of Morse Mt., Eyrie has spectacular views in all directions of the ocean, Seawall Beach, Seguin Island, Sprague River, Casco Bay, and, on clear days, Mt. Washington. It is located one mile from the beach. Rebuilt in 2002, it features large living/dining area with wood stove, spectacular windows, light, and views. Sundeck. Wheelchair accessible. Sleeps 10. Insulated and comfortable year round.

EASTERLY:

At the top of Morse Mountain, Easterly has a wonderful view south to the open Atlantic and Seguin Island, and to the east to Popham Beach and the Kennebec River; located one mile from the beach. Sleeps 8.

Area attractions include excellent striped fishing on Seawall Beach and in the Kennebec River (local charters available); Fort Popham State Park, the Maine Maritime Museum in Bath; L. L. Bean in Freeport; local lobster and clams and gourmet restaurants in Bath and beyond. Morse Mountain and Seawall Beach provide exceptional bird-watching opportunities, especially in migration (May and Sep – Oct).

HOUSE AND COTTAGE OFF POPHAM ROAD

1877 HOUSE:

The Morse family farmhouse, built in 1877, has a lovely view of Morse River Marsh, the ocean and Seguin Island lighthouse. Sleeps 10.

A-FRAME COTTAGE:

Located 100 yards from 1877 House, it includes a recently renovated living room and kitchen with a woodstove for warmth. Sundeck with view over meadow to Morse River Marsh. Sleeps 5.

To reach Seawall Beach from 1877 or the A-frame, enjoy a walk 1.5 mile trail through woods of the Bates-Morse Mountain Conservation Area, canoe/kayak via the Morse River, or drive 4 miles. Good canoeing, kayaking and swimming on the tidal Morse River are only 200 yards from 1877 House and A-Frame.

Please note: All houses are fully furnished but have no TV. All houses have blankets and linens. Parking is limited to 2 vehicles per house and there is no smoking in any house. Dogs are permitted in 1877 and A-Frame only.
